A Tribute to Rev. Jonathan Owhe

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor Rev. Jonathan Owhe, a native born Nigerian who immigrated to the United States of America in 1989 in answer to God's Call to restore a dying world. Rev. The church now has over 400 parishioners at its Brooklyn headquarters as well as two branches in Tennessee and Georgia and over 300 churches in Africa, Asia, and Europe.

Reverend Jonathon Owhe

Dear Reverend Owhe:

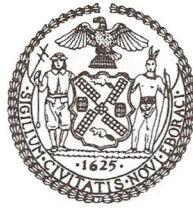

On behalf of The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, we would like to thank Christ the Rock Church for your commitment to making Cover the Uninsured Week a success in New York. Thanks to your support, we were able to hold at least 228 successful activities in New York.

While we are still gathering information on the activities that took place, we can report with pride that Cover the Uninsured Week exceeded our high expectations. In fact, more than 875 events were held in all 50 states and the District of Columbia. In addition to the thousands of individuals involved in cities and towns across the nation, Cover the Uninsured Week inspired more than 160 national organizations and 700 local groups to support and participate in activities on behalf of the uninsured. This unprecedented mobilization of individuals and organizations—representing America's diverse business, labor, health care, political, academic and faith communities—demonstrates that there is indeed broad support for action on the issue of the uninsured.

Thanks to your efforts, this important message is finally getting the attention it deserves from national and local leaders, policy-makers, organizations, and the public alike. In addition to the remarkable media coverage in your community, Cover the Uninsured Week generated significant national media attention, including placements in the New York Times, Washington Post, USA Today, Wall Street Journal, Business Week, Dear Abby, Parade Magazine, and La Opinion. Stories also ran on many broadcasts, including NBC's "Today Show" and the "CBS Evening News," and at least nine TV shows, including ER and Law & Order SVU, participated in the Week.

The tremendous success of Cover the Uninsured Week is due in large part to the support and dedication of organizations such as yours. The role you have played in this effort is critical to ensuring that all Americans—and all New Yorkers—have access to the health care coverage they need and deserve.

Over the next few weeks, we will be collecting suggestions and feedback from many participants in Cover the Uninsured Week. We ask that you take the time to share your thoughts about this initial effort and offer any suggestions you may have for ways that we might continue to raise awareness about the plight of Americans who do not have health insurance. We have enclosed a form to make your response easier and hope that you will take a moment to complete it. Your feedback is very important to us.

Dear Reverend Owhe:

We are sorry that you were not able to join us for the 4th Annual MOHIA Holiday Recognition Ceremony held on Wednesday, December 15, 2004. The reception afforded us the opportunity to recognize our key partners that continue to support and broaden our reach to serve the needs of the City's uninsured population.

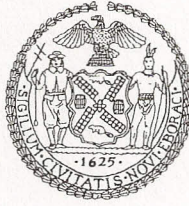

Through this correspondence, we would like to acknowledge Christ the Rock Church for its valuable contribution and dedication to the Mayor's HealthStat program providing access to health coverage for over 80,000 New Yorkers in 2004. We have enclosed a token of our appreciation for all of your efforts.

We look forward to continuing our partnership with you throughout the New Year.

Dear Reverend Owhe:

The Mayor's Office of Health Insurance Access (MOHIA) extends our sincerest gratitude for your support and participation in the Cover the Uninsured Week campaign. Your participation in this campaign has helped to demonstrate that the collaboration between government and faith, private and community-based organizations is a formula that works to reach underserved communities.

Through this correspondence, we are very pleased to share with you some of the preliminary outcomes of the campaign. Of the twenty-eight cities across the nation that participated in Cover the Uninsured Week, New York City hosted more than 225 events accounting for one quarter of all events occurring nationally. As a result of your partnership, New York City hosted more Town Hall meetings, on-campus events; health fairs and involved many more partners (i.e. 177 organizations) than any other city across the nation.

The Cover the Uninsured Week campaign was successful in raising public awareness of the plight of the 1.6 million New Yorkers under age 65 who lack health coverage. Furthermore, the campaign has helped to increase awareness of New York State's public health insurance programs for which more than 700,000 uninsured New Yorkers are eligible.

It is our goal to continue our collaboration with you beyond Cover the Uninsured Week to bring public health insurance and other key government benefits to the communities that you serve. We encourage you to share with us your schedule of upcoming activities so that we can continue to develop opportunities to provide important information and valuable services to underserved communities. We have enclosed a list of MOHIA contacts by borough for your convenience. We look forward to continuing our partnership well into the future. Again, many thanks.

Sincerely,

Marjorie A. Cadogan

Dear Reverend Owhe:

Thank you for taking the time to join me at the East New York Community Leaders meeting I recently hosted at the PAL Center to discuss the needs and concerns of your community.

I continue to visit communities throughout the City to learn more about the issues most affecting our neighborhoods. Although I am no stranger to East New York, it was very enlightening to hear from you first hand about the concerns and unique challenges you face every day as a resident in the neighborhood. These meetings help me to better understand how my office can best serve New Yorkers and, also creates a forum to openly discuss how we can work together to build stronger communities.

It was a pleasure meeting with you and if I can ever be of assistance, please feel free to reach out to my Office of Community Relations at 212-669-3089.

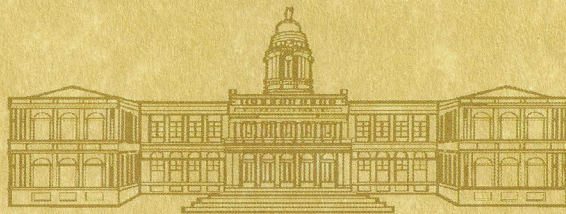

Again; thank you and I look forward to working with you on our common agenda.

Dear ~~Friend~~ of Ivy's:

The Children's Hope Foundation put on a glorious November gala. Despite the drizzly weather, we had lots of fun, and of course, being with Ivy, we shared lots of laughter.

Thank you again for your contribution to Children's Hope Foundation in honor of Ivy. They do extraordinary work to support New York's Children living with HIV and AIDS and other difficult challenges.

Enclosed please find a copy of the ad that Viveca Diaz created to honor our friend. As you will see from Scott's letter, somehow it didn't make it into the Event Journal. Never fear, my friends at Alliance Art Glass created a beautiful frame, and Ivy now has this remembrance to enjoy at home.

Again, thank you for your generosity and care!
